

Subject: Pilot Decision Making

Aim	Resources	Time Allotted
To meet the requirements for the Transport Canada Pilot Decision Making Course.	- Projector - TC Slide Package	150 minutes

Teaching Points

1. The decision making process, including modules on factors which affect good judgment;
2. Human performance factors, including modules on physical, psychological and, physiological phenomena and limitations; and
3. Human error countermeasures and good airmanship.

Exam – No exam.

Participants are issued a training certificate to indicate successful completion.